Is Jesus Lord?

“But cursed be the deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a corrupt thing: for I am a great King, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathen.”

Malachi 1:14

“Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.”

Acts 2:36

Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Philippians 2:9-11

Introduction:

1. I have no effeminate message for you; I have no instruction to beg; I am an ambassador of the High King of Heaven.
2. You have no light duty and privilege before you; worshipping and serving the Lord Jesus Christ is a great matter.
3. The goal in our religion of worshipping Christ is not numbers or programs, but righteousness (faithful obedience).
4. We live in the perilous times of the last days, when religion is a form of godliness without authority (II Tim 3:1-5).
5. We declare, like the Jews, we will not have Him reign over us by our sins (Luke 19:11-27; 6:46; I Samuel 8:7).

I. THE BIBLE DECLARES HIM LORD!

A. The Son of God our Redeemer had several names and titles we should rightly understand.
   1. His personal name was “Jesus” (Matthew 1:21; Luke 1:31; 2:21).
   2. His geographical identifier was “Jesus of Nazareth” (John 19:19; Acts 22:8).
   3. His official title was Christ, the Messiah or Anointed (Da 9:25-26; Jn 1:41; 4:25).
   4. His descriptive and positional title was Lord (John 13:13; Philippians 2:9-11).
   5. At Pentecost He was declared and shown to own all three names (Acts 2:33-36).
   6. These were common enough He was called by any one of them or all of them.

B. Does your Bible simply use “Lord” as a formal, vain title of address as lords and ladies?
   3. Jesus is the “Lord Jesus Christ” 82 times out of 189 occurrences of “Jesus Christ.”
   4. Consider also “Lord Christ,” “Lord Jesus,” “Christ the Lord,” “Christ Jesus the Lord,” “Jesus Christ our Lord,” “Christ Jesus our Lord,” “Christ Jesus my Lord.”

C. Lord. I. A master, ruler. 1. A master of servants; the male head of a household. Obs. 2. One who has dominion over others as his subjects, or to whom service and obedience are due; a master, chief, prince, sovereign.

D. After His resurrection, He was exalted far above all powers (Eph 1:20-23; Psalm 2:6-9).
E. God has highly exalted Him as King, for all to confess Jesus Christ is Lord (Phil 2:11).

J. He shall soon show He is the Blessed and Only Potentate, King of kings (I Tim 6:13-16).
K. We must appear at Christ’s judgment seat; He is Lord (II Cor 5:10-11; Rom 14:10-12).

D. It is not enough to say, “Lord, Lord.” We must do the will of our Father (Mat 7:21-23).
